InTest (Event,Alarm)

The InTest command defines an override event code delivered to the account when the system is On Test, and if the event delivers as an alarm.

Command Parameters

- Event - Names the event code to override the event code received when the account is On Test.
- Alarm - Determines if the event should deliver to an operator while the account is On Test.