

Video()

The Video() command determines if the event and, when applicable, zone links to video technology. This requires a Transmitter Type with the Video Capable option selected.

This command does not have any parameters to set.
