Manitou Web Client - QR - Data Entry - Default Person Types

This article details the numbers associated with the person types in Manitou. The Default person type on a customer record is Keyholder (1).

#	Description
0	Contact - A person with access to the site. May or may not have a key or password.
1	Keyholder - A person with access to the site and that may respond to the location in the event of an alarm.
2	Technician - A person responsible for troubleshooting and maintenance of an alarm system.
3	Agent - A person with access to the site who may be a responsible person for a company that also has access to the site.
4	Janitor - A person who has access to the site to provide learning services to a site.
5	Person - Any general person with access to the site who may not have specific responsibility for responding to alarms..

Additional notes:

It is possible to add additional person types to the Manitou system. See your monitoring company for additional types added.