

Monitoring Company Reverse Commands

Reverse commands on the Monitoring Company house the commands for systems and features that allow the ability to enable or connect to remote systems.

Most often, Manitou's development team will add Reverse Commands as required by the integration partners. If your company has a development team and would like to add a Reverse Command, please contact the Manitou support team for assistance.

---