

Silent()

The Silent() command flags the event with this command as delivering silently from the monitored location.

This command has no parameters to set.
